

Bobbie Noonan's Pre K Press
 Frankfort
 815-469-2627
 September 18, 2017
Dinosaurs

Introductions: During the next two weeks we will have fun exploring the world of Dinosaurs! To enhance our theme, your child may bring in their personal dinosaur. Please be sure to label them with your child's first and last name.

Ms. Paula, Mrs. Karen, Mrs. Cathy, Mrs. Amanda and Mrs. Susan

Introductions

Letters: Gg, Hh
Numbers: 7 & 8
Colors words: red, blue, green, yellow, orange, brown
Vocabulary Word:
Clamor- a great outcry; noisy, shouting demands

Language Arts: What does the T-Rex say? "Aargh, Aargh" We plan to explore the prehistoric world this week. "Dinosaurs" by James Diaz will be one of the books highlighted this week.

Motor: The letters G & H will be added to our sign language review. Path activities will combine crawling and balancing objects while moving. We will also follow a mini obstacle course this week.

STUDENTS OF THE WEEK
 Annabel George
 Olivia Glim
 Joshua Jacoby
 Duncan Stephens

Craft and Writing: We will welcome the first day of Autumn with leaf rubbing and a leaf wreath. The children will continue to practice printing letters A thru H and review color word recognition.

Concept: Our graphing activities include answering yes/no questions about Dinosaurs. Rocks are at the science table, and we are looking for extinct dinosaurs in the rice table.

