THE CHICKS ARE COMING, THE CHICKS
ARE COMING!

Just in time for Bird Week.

We are looking forward to the arrival of some cute chicks in a couple of weeks!

Mrs. Paula, Mrs. Cathy, Mrs. Amanda,
Mrs. Karen and Mrs. Susan

Happy Birthday!

Rahini Patel 4/26

Sophia Wade 4/26

Language Arts: This week we will be reading the fable “The Dog and His Reflection” and learn how to be grateful and happy for what we have. We will also be learning new vocabulary referring to our theme, such as brood, perch and nectar.

Concept: A pair of binoculars will enhance our lesson plans this week and we look for different kinds of birds. Indoors, we will count and sort birds by type as well as color. We have been studying the whole process of embryology and are anxiously waiting to say “Happy Hatch day” to some cute little chicks. Stay tuned!

Craft & Writing: We are working on filling in the missing numbers and connecting the dots to create a picture. The children will continue their review of the alphabet. Our little hands will help us create a bald eagle.

Motor: We will fly like a bird through a mini obstacle course and hula hoop path. Let’s continue our spring training skills by throwing, catching and hitting a ball. Go Team Noonan’s!
