Week 6

July 16-20, 2018

THEME: Rumble in the Jungle

Featured story: Oh No! by Candace Fleming and Eric Rohmann

This week, our students will be walking on the wild side! The jungle is full of fascinating sights, sounds, and smells. It's the perfect place to examine the idea of diversity, and to experience a plethora of our feathered and furried friends. Our books this week will take us to the rainforest floor and the height of the lush canopy that the jungle animals call home.

Pot's and Paint's will be here on Wednesday, July 18 to assist the children in creating a piece of jungle pottery. If your child is in attendance this day, $10.00 will be charged to your account for this fun activity.
