 Safety/Police

Introductions: Since Halloween is approaching quickly, we will begin discussing different ways to be safe. This week's discussions will focus on the members of our law enforcement community.

Mrs. Paula, Mrs. Karen, Mrs. Cathy, Mrs. Amanda, and Mrs. Susan

Introductions

Letters: Ii, Jj

Shapes: triangle rectangle

Concept: Our focus this week is on the three most important numbers we should know: 9 -1-1. The Science table will feature pumpkins as we talk about our new season.

Craft and Writing: Ii and Jj phonics and printing papers will be our main focus this week. Crafts for this week will include crows and corn cobs.

STAR STUDENT

Miranda Data
 Zachary Ejsmont
 Owen Labuda
 Brandon Turner

Language Arts: Safety First! Our focus this week is safety at home, school, and the park. We will talk and read stories that will help us to know that Firefighters and Police Officers are our friends. Our featured story will be "Spark the Firefighter" by Stephen Krensky. The song "Twinkle, Twinkle Traffic Light" will put us in the safety mood as well.

Motor: Red Light, Green Light will be a great game to play outside in the cool fall air. We are also going to review our action words stop, go, run, jump, hop, and come.

Important Events

Oct. 19 Music

Oct. 31 Halloween Party

Nov. 14 & 15 Picture Day- more info to follow
