Language Arts:

Oh where, oh where has my pumpkin gone? Oh where, oh where can it be? With eyes so bright and its mouth with fright oh where, oh where can it be? It's a spooktacular time for singing and dancing! Our class will learn many spooky songs and enjoy some Halloween stories throughout the week. Our featured stories are "Pete the Cat and the Five Little Pumpkins" and "Skeleton Meets the Mummy".

Concept

During our spooky Halloween week the children will have a spooktacular time as they play a ghost color review game. The children will also enjoy a seriation activity of mummies. It will be so much fun as we enjoy a Halloween themed water table.

Craft and Writing:

Throughout our Halloween celebration the children will be creating many art projects. We will create a black bat project and a spider web craft.

Motor:

Get ready to shake like a skeleton, to roll like a pumpkin and stomp like a monster as we learn how to do the monster MASH! The children will have fun as we go on a pumpkin search in a pretend pumpkin patch. The children will also enjoy a new ghost bowling game and much more. We will also play some fun Halloween games.
