Week 14 Pow-Wow
November 19th-23rd 2018

To finish our unit on Native Americans we will conclude with our Pow-Wow celebration. The boys and girls have been preparing for our Pow-Wow over the last few weeks and can't wait to start the festivities. On this special day the children will dress as Native Americans or Pilgrim's and sail on the Mayflower to the new world. We will share Thanksgiving Day stories; enjoy special homemade butter and a delicious lunch. Our class will enjoy singing songs and using our homemade musical shakers to do an Indian ribbon dance. During the Pow-Wow we will explore how the Native Americans and Pilgrims once lived and why we celebrate Thanksgiving today. Look for your child's Native American or Pilgrim head band to come home along with their music shakers and macaroni necklaces. The boys and girls will enjoy this fun Thanksgiving poem.

Thanksgiving

The year has turned its circle,
The seasons come and go.
The harvest is all gathered in
And chilly north winds blow.
Orchards have shared their treasures,
The fields, their yellow grain.
So open wide the doorway-
Thanksgiving comes again!
