Language Arts:

"I'm a Native Chief in my Wigwam, Wam hear my tom tom beat, see my arrow fly." Is just one of the Thanksgiving themed songs the class will learn to reinforce our vocabulary for our Pow Wow next week. Our own heritage will be discussed along with the Pilgrims journey by sharing the Mayflower project that you completed at home!

Concept:

The class will work on sorting feathers by color and size! We will also work on a seriation activity with teepees and turkeys. There will also be number concept and recognition games that will include turkey feathers. We will compare and contrast Pilgrims and Native Americans!

Motor:

We will have an active week as we practice our aim with a tossing game and enjoy activities we've already learned with an obstacle course. We will also have outdoor free play if the weather stays nice.

Craft and writing:

Drums, Native vests, and head dresses oh my! We will be busy preparing for our Pow Wow festivities next week! The children will also enjoy some various Thanksgiving themed projects involving turkeys and Native Americans and Pilgrims!
