Language Arts:

Throughout this thankful week, our class will discuss the meaning of Thanksgiving. As we learn about Thanksgiving, we will enjoy several fun finger plays and flannel board stories. Our featured flannel board story is "Five Little Turkeys".

Concept

Be kind, be thoughtful, be genuine, but most of all be thankful. The children will have fun as we talk about what we are thankful for this Thanksgiving day. The children will enjoy a one to one correspondence activity with thanksgiving items and a turkey color review game.

Craft and Writing:

During the next week, we will be honoring Thanksgiving by making Native American headbands, as well as creating many other fun fall projects.

Motor:

The children will enjoy dancing to the turkey pokey song and also have fun pretending that they are turkeys as they shake their tail feathers.
