

Junior Journal

Week 18

December 17-21

Topic: Christmas

Language Arts

HO-HO-HO! The children will enjoy many flannelboard stories and fingerplays about Christmas.

Party days will be a blast as the children enjoy building towers of presents and wrapping their friends up as Christmas trees with green garland! Sensory fun will be enjoyed by all as we pretend to make Christmas cookies, frosty fluff and Grinch goo.

Outdoor Reminders

*Children need to have snow pants, gloves, hats and boots to go outdoors in the afternoon.

Pre-school children will be notified when to bring a full set of outerwear.

Concept

Christmas fun has just begun. Mrs. Barb has some fun games in store, such as a Hot Chocolate match. Also, we will be sorting objects relating to Christmas. Light and heavy will be reviewed as well as a snowman building activity.

Craft & Writing

In Ms. Sam's class the children will continue to act as busy elves as we work on our Christmas surprise.
