

Junior Journal

Week 23

January 21-25

Topic: Community/Careers

Motor

Tumbling mat fun will be enjoyed as the children learn the bear walk, crab walk, snake slither and log rolling. An action word game will be played and a bean bag toss game will be used to review concepts. Musical rugmats, hot potato and ball play will also incorporate review activities using fireman and police hats.

Language Arts

The children will have a chance to further their knowledge about the different careers of people in the community as we read books and discuss what their jobs are. We will continue to play our guessing riddle game about jobs, places and service. The children will incorporate rhythm sticks into our echo game. Can't wait to see those Flat Stanley's!

Introduce: Brown & Purple

Bits of Intelligence: Flowers

Fable # 4: The Greedy Fox

Moral: "We should think about what might happen before we do something."

Vocab: Wonder- an unusual or surprising thing; to want to know.

Craft and Writing

Our theme this week is Community and Careers. The children will work together on several papers that introduce the colors brown & purple. We are working hard on our fine motor skills for our evaluations.

Concept

In Mrs. Barb's room we continue to discuss a great number of occupations and the way these workers help us today. Transportation, health care, construction and service workers will all be included. We will use our mystery bag with various items and discuss how the items might be used to perform a job. Our science discuss for the next few weeks will be the weather and temperature. The sensory table will be used to explore volume in different size containers.
