Toddler News
February 11-22, 2019

Theme:
Dinosaurs

Introductions:
Rhombus

Language:

This week we will read stories about dinosaurs. We will learn the different types and what they eat. We will learn some songs and read new flannel bard stories.

Song of the Week:
"We Are the Dinosaur"

Motor:

This week we will use the tumbling mat and work on our summersaults. We will review our colors by creating an obstacle course.

Concept:

We will continue to talk about the weather we are experiencing! We will learn our new shape Rhombus by working on jobs during shelf time.

Craft & Writing:

We will work on papers to reinforce our new shape rhombus and we will use dinosaurs to make dinosaur tracks.

Reminders:

Parent/Teacher Conferences:

Miss Kristina's parent/teacher conferences are on Tuesday, February 19th.
Did you sign up for a conference to see how your child is progressing this year??

Valentine's Day Party:

If you would like to bring something in for Valentine's Day you are more than welcome to.
There are 16 children in our class.

Have a Great Week
Miss Kristina
