Theme:

Spring (we hope)

Introductions:

Story #12

Reading Words:

to

Language:

This week we will talk about the season of spring. New finger plays will be learned and many new stories will be read. As always the children may bring items to help reinforce our theme. Our daily review will consist of letters Aa-Zz, phonics and rhyming words and the children will work on their reading stories.

Craft & Writing:

The children will be working on a variety of art projects that will reinforce our theme of spring. We will also work on papers that will focus on our numbers, rhyming, following directions and opposites. The children will also continue to work on printing their names and their cutting skills.

Concept:

The children will be using the tactile bag and will be working on estimation activities using a stuffed bunny and a basket with many different colored plastic eggs. The children will also be matching, sorting and counting different objects. We will also be working on new jobs that will reinforce our theme of spring. Positional words next to, behind and in front of will be reviewed by playing a following direction game.

Motor:

The children will be playing musical rug mats and a following directions game where we will be hopping like a bunny and we will have fun playing bunny bowling. We will also have an obstacle course using the tunnel, spring board and hula hoops and a spring ring toss game.
