Language Arts

During this week we will continue to enhance our theme of mammals with the aid of mammal teaching pictures and stories. Our discussion about the characteristics of mammals will expand to the different surroundings of the animals and the homes in which they live. We are having a great time learning some favorite St. Patrick's Day tunes.

Concept

Mrs. Ann will introduce different forms of measurement to the children. Science projects are planned, as well as a compare and contrast activity. These activities will have the children discussing the differences between a mammal and non-mammal. We will also be doing a great tactile bag activity.

In the spirit of St. Patrick's Day, wear your GREEN on Friday, March 15th.

SPRING BREAK

April 15 - 19
No Pre-school (9:00-12:00)
or Kindergarten classes

Craft and Writing

Pencils are sharpened and ready to practice printing numbers one through twenty. Cutting and gluing are just two of the tasks that will help the children complete a mammal picture.

Motor

Ms. Cheryl has the children literally acting like animals this week. They will enjoy trumpeting around like elephants, lumbering like a bear and swimming like a whale as they follow the directions of a record titled "Animal Action". The children will be marching around the alphabet this week.
