Pre-K Update

Language Arts

Hooray for Spring! With the warmer weather on the way at last, we are ready to celebrate Spring in Mrs. Melissa's room. She has a wonderful assortment of fingerplays and poems to share with the children. We have been working hard on build a word and will begin build a sentence this week using our story words..

Proverb #4- A place for everything and everything in its place.

Spring Break

April 15th - 19th

No Pre-school (9-12) classes

Craft and Writing

Spring will be in full bloom this week as the children welcome the new season. Watch as our class focusus on our spring color of choice, BLUE. We will do plenty of review this week incorporating Spring!

Help us welcome spring on our Spring color days!

March 20 & 21. Wear the color BLUE

Motor

Finally, Spring is here! Weather permitting, our outside time will be packed with action as we play the games hopscotch, red light-green light and relay races. Our obstacle course will move outside and will include slides, swings and running activities. Please dress your child for the weather.

Concept

Mrs. Ann has the children busy talking about the changes in weather and other signs of Spring. The shelf jobs will be reintroduced and reviewed, helping the children to master them. Rote counting to 50 and counting by 2's and 5's continue to be a part of our daily routine.
