Introductions: Not only near Halloween, but for all year long, Stranger Danger is a very important topic to cover with the children. The concept of who is a stranger and what we should do if we get lost will be reinforced through our discussions.

Introductions

Numbers: 11, 12

Story 4 Vocabulary: See, Me

Concept: As we approach one of our favorite holidays, Halloween, our safety theme continues and we will explore the meaning of Stranger Danger. Numbers 11 and 12 are introduced. To enhance our fine motor skills, the children will use tweezers to pick pumpkin seeds from a bowl.

Craft and Writing: We will practice printing 11 and 12, and our names. Crafts will include fall decorations and a silly witch. Scissors skills will be put to the test as we cut curvy lines.

Upcoming Events

BN Pumpkin Patch open - October 27
 Halloween Parties - October 29 & 30
 Don't forget to vote for Poppy our Scarecrow on the Park Districts Facebook page.

Language Arts: Now that we've talked about our safety rules and safety helpers, we will help the children understand who strangers are. The children are successfully reading and taking their stories home. This week our highlighted book is, "Don't Talk to Strangers!" by Christine Mehlhass, illustrated by Kathi Ember.

Motor: A game of Red Light, Green Light will help review our action words stop and go. Stop, Drop, and Roll will be reviewed throughout the week.
