Week 10

Introductions: the letter Bb

We have a spook-tacular week ahead of us as we prepare for Halloween! We will be introducing the letter Bb and add onto our A is for Amos flannelboard song. A brand new "Peek-A-Boo Let's Review" game is sure to delight our little toddlers as well.

Book of the Week: EEK! Halloween by Sandra Boynton

Ghost bowling will add some new gross motor fun as the children try to knock down our spooky bowling pins. Sensory fun will be provided with shaving cream as we reinforce the letter Bb by drawing it on the table and then wiping it away again and again.

A spooky BOO ghost craft will decorate our classroom. A peek-a-boo flannelboard story will get the children excited as we sing and look for our little ghost.

"Little ghost, Little ghost come out and play.
What color house are you hiding in today?"

SPECIAL DATES
