Week 15 November 23-27 Theme: Thanksgiving

Book of the Week: Happy Thanksgiving Biscuit! by Alyssa Capucilli

This may be a short week but the Toddler teachers are going to pack it full of fun! We are going to continue playing house as we enjoy learning how to set the table, pretend to cook a Thanksgiving feast and pretend to feed the baby dolls. We will practice 1-1 correspondence skills as we place one food item into each bowl.

Our little turkeys will trot around the room and learn how to gobble and wobble for some gross motor fun! A classic turkey handprint will make its way home this week.

We are so thankful for our amazing class of Toddlers and our wonderful families. Thank you for choosing Bobbie Noonan's to care for your precious children. We appreciate you!

Happy Thanksgiving!

School Closed Thursday, November 26th and November 27th in observance of Thanksgiving. Please take a moment to fill out the form sent home letting us know if your child will attend Christmas break.

HAPPY
Turkey Day!
