

Toddler Times

January 25-29      Week 24

Theme: A Splash of Color

Toddler Progress Report are due to arrive home the first week in February. Phone conferences are available at parents request.

This week we will have a messy good time as we focus on process art. The children will enjoy exploring different types of painting as well as practice various color sorting games and flannel board stories. Our favorite is called

Colors for Painting Fun

Tune: Skip to my Lou

I know the colors for painting fun
Green like the grass and a yellow sun.
An orange pumpkin and white snow,
A red rose and a black crow.
Blue like a mailbox, brown like an ape,
A pink pig and some purple grapes.

Our bodies will be hopping and moving up and down as we enjoy a color hop dance party using colorful scarves. A bean bag color toss will help us label colors we already know as well as our new color yellow. Duplos will help us to build a colorful castle as well as work on sorting skills. Our sensory bins will be filled with soft and fluffy multi-colored pom-poms for us to scoop and sort.
