Language Arts:

What is your favorite color? As we review colors, we will learn a few songs to teach us about them. Our featured songs this week are "We Love Colors", and "Colored Frogs".

Concept:

The children will enjoy different group activities for example, the color hands seriation activity. They will also get to experiment with color blending.

Motor:

So far we have learned many colors of the rainbow! During this week, we are going to introduce our new color and put our thinking caps on as we review our colors. We will get to play a new and exciting color game like "color stairs". We will also enjoy reviewing our colors with a fun game of "Color Relay" as we race to find the correct color on a matching card.

Craft and Writing:

Calling all colorful artists! This week, our little artists will create many colorful and creative art projects. Be on the lookout for our "bubble rap rainbow painting" project. Get ready for a colorful week!

Introduction:

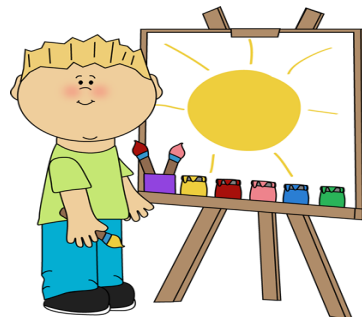

Color: Gray

Review: Everything that we have learned so far
