THEME: Where We Live

Over the next two weeks of school the children will learn about the different symbols of America and who are neighbors are....Mexico.

On Wednesday, May 26, our Kindergarten students will be treated to a special awards lunch.

Craft and Writing

The children will make a book called "We the People of America". This will contain information about our great country.

Math

In Math, a review of all the concepts that have been introduced this year will keep us busy. We will work on a few pages from our math workbook as well. We will continue to work on our measuring skills.

Language

The children have been working on an Animal Alphabet project. More animals will be added to this fun activity. A review of long/short vowel sounds, blends, sentence printing and word building will take place.
