THEME: Spring

This week as the weather begins to get warmer, fingers crossed, we will discuss all things Spring!!!

Our spring break takes place next week, March 28 thru April 1. Our center is closed to all students who attend the morning session only.

We hope you all have a great week!

Language Arts: What can you see in the Spring? By Sean Smith, will be enjoyed in class. A review of our Bold Beginning stories 1-10 will take place during the week. Phonic Bingo will be enjoyed and the am word family will be introduced.

Concept: What is your favorite part of spring? We will discuss all the fun things we can do in our new season. Counting and estimating will be a big part of our new week.

Craft and Writing: This week's papers include an alphabet dot to dot, to create an umbrella, counting review and letter coloring. We will create a kite to hang in our classroom.

Motor: Let's spring into action with a game of basketball and baseball. GO Team NOONAN!!!

Happy Birthday!
