Language Arts:

We will be reading several selections on our topic, the farm. Our selections will include: Moo, Moo, What are You? and Quack, Quack. We'll also be singing songs such as B-I-N-G-O, and Old MacDonald. The children will get to use our farm hand puppets as we sing these songs. Our flannel board will also help the children to learn some of the characters in our books and songs. In addition to farm fun, we will be discussing the Earth, and things we can do to help!

Concept:

We will be reviewing several of the jobs already introduced. The children will be stacking blocks. How many blocks how can you build your tower? Matching, sorting, and other counting activities will be done, but this week, using our favorite farm animals. Lastly, the children will be stringing farm animals!

Motor: The children will be pretending to be various farm animals. We farm animals will be chasing bubbles outdoors, and doing the Chicken Dance inside. Let me see you flap your chicken wings!

Craft and Writing:

The children will be creating several of the farm animals introduced to them using a variety of materials. Pigs, ducks, and sheep will be included in our projects.
