Language Arts: Being thankful is a great thing to be! Our class is going to learn many new songs and flannel board stories about kindness, love, and being thankful for important things. We will be discussing who Native Americans and Pilgrims are. As we learn about them, we will discuss The First Thanksgiving and talk about many family traditions. We will celebrate this holiday by being thankful for all things we love and find special.

Craft and Writing: Gobble, gobble says Mr. Turkey! Our class will be creating their very own turkey handprint art. What fun! Throughout the week, we will continue to practice tracing our name papers. We have added Thanksgiving coloring pages to our art papers. We will enjoy coloring and water-coloring these fun papers.

We will also explore sensory experiences over the next two weeks.

Concept: Our class will work on sorting feathers by color and size! We will also work on number concept and recognition games that will include turkey feathers,

“How many feathers does the turkey want?”

Motor: We will have an active week as we practice our aim with a tossing game and enjoy many activities that we have already learned! We will also have outdoor play (weather permitting).
