THEME: Thanksgiving

November 14, 2022

Our discussions will focus on the Thanksgiving holiday, Native Americans, Pilgrims, and turkeys through stories, songs and fingerplays. We will be reviewing all that has been introduced so far this year.

Please remember to dress your child for chilly morning temperatures, as we go outside early in the morning.

Have great week!!

Mrs. Desi, Mrs. Taghrid, Mrs. Catherine and Ms. Melissa

STUDENT OF THE WEEK

Holden Leatzow

Axel Rouwolf

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Axel Rauwolf 11/17

Language Arts: GOBBLE, GOBBLE! Pictures of the First Thanksgiving will enhance our discussions of the theme this week. Corduroy's Thanksgiving, Ten Fat Turkeys, and Five Little Pilgrims are some of the stories and finger plays featured this week.

Concept: Our colors and seriation skills will be reviewed using a turkey and turkey feathers. Necklaces will be made for our Thanksgiving celebration next week and our dish washing skills will be tested at the water table.

Craft & Writing: To prepare for our Thanksgiving celebration, we will make Native headbands and vests. Some crafts created this week will include hand painting, water color painting and collage work. We will continue to work on our pre-writing skills.

Motor: Our jumping, crawling, and rolling skills will be put to the test as we participate in an obstacle course. We will shake our turkey feathers as we dance to the "Turkey Pokey".
