

Bobbie Noonan's Child Care
Pre-K Newsletter
September 11 – 15, 2023

Theme:
Pets/Working Animals

Introductions:
Numbers 5 & 6

Vocabulary:
Review

Manners:
Say "Please"
Say "Thank You"

Fable:
The Boy Who Cried Wolf

Moral:
If people think you tell lies, no one will believe you.

Language:
We will continue to talk about our pets this week as we begin to discuss working animals. Please remember your pet pictures this week. We will continue to review letters Aa – Ff and their phonetic sounds. We will also learn some new flannel board stories and finger plays to go along with our theme.

Concept:
This week during Concept time we are going to be working on some new activities to introduce the numbers 5 & 6. We will also continue to work on sorting jobs and pet jobs to help reinforce our theme. A compare and contrast activity will be enhanced through our discussions about a winter hat and boots, and objects which are big and little.

Craft & Writing:

This week we will be introducing the children to the numbers 5 & 6 with a variety of tracing and printing papers. We will also work on matching papers, scissor skills, printing our names and projects that will reinforce our theme of pets.

Motor:

The children will be doing an obstacle course using blocks and the balance beam. We will also be doing a following directions activity. If the weather is nice, we will be going outside.

Little Puppy

Tune: Twinkle, twinkle, little star

Little puppy, happy and gay,
Won't you please come out to play?
Lick my face and wag your tail,
We'll have fun that will not fail.
Little puppy, happy and gay,
Won't you please come out to play?

Have a good week!
