We will discuss Police Officers this week. The children will learn about their job, how they keep us safe and we will also learn about police dogs. We will also introduce the letters Ii and Jj along with their phonetic sounds. The children will play letter bingo and will learn a poem called "911" and "Stop, Look and Listen". Show-N-Tell will be on Thursday! Bring in ONE item that begins with the letter Ii and ONE item that begins with the letter Jj. Both items must fit into a gallon zip lock bag.

Concept:
In concept time we are going to be busy playing a game called "Can You Tell Me" and comparing and contrasting a book with a magazine, a hairbrush with a toothbrush. We will also be using the tactile bag, estimation jar and will work on shelf jobs to reinforce our theme of police, our new letters Ii and Jj and shapes triangle and rectangle.

Craft & Writing:

This week the children will be working on tracing and printing the letters Ii and Jj along with matching and following direction papers. The children will continue to work on printing their names and cutting out basic shapes to build their fine motor skills.
