Winter is in the air! For the next two weeks, we will be reading stories about winter and the children will learn new flannel board stories: Five Little Snowmen, and Five Little Snowflakes.

The letter Cc will be introduced. We will also talk about the snow and what winter gear we need to wear for the cold weather such as, coats, winter boots, scarves, gloves, and hats.

The children will be having fun making several winter art projects. The children will be working on papers to review our new letter Cc.
