

Bobbie Noonan's Child Care Kindergarten's News

July 15 –19; Summer Week #6

Theme: Playful Pirates

Language: This week in Language, on Monday bring your pirate item for show and tell. The story "If You Give a Pirate a Pretzel" will be read and the children will try to remember what happens as they fill in the blanks in their copy of the story. WE will also read "Pete the Cat and The Treasure Map" and "Henry's Pirate Surprise". On the computer, we will listen to "Pirates Don't Go to Kindergarten".

Craft & Writing: This week in Craft & Writing, the children will design their own jolly roger. They will write the missing words into a booklet and paint a porthole. They will write a number of their choice and create a treasure map.

Concept: This week in Concept, there will be a roll and color number concept game and a pirate booty addition game. The children will engineer a moving porthole and count out some pieces of pirate gold.

Motor: This week in Motor, we will have fun playing a pirate ball toss game and walking the plank. We pirates will also enjoy time in the swimming pool.
