

Attention Parents:

Time for a fall photo opportunity! At drop off or pick up time, you can snap a picture of your child (or even make it a family affair) with our fall photo board. Preschool parents, the photo board will be available in the preschool line for you to take your child's picture. We are bustling with excitement as the first day of fall is right around the corner and are hoping to spread some autumn fun. Take a picture and post it on your social media accounts and let the positive comments fall in! Don't forget to mention Bobbie Noonan's on your socials. If you would like us to share on our Facebook/Instagram pages please send the picture to the center director, who will forward it to our social media consultant.

Happy Fall!
