THEME: Native Americans

October 30, 2023

During this first week of November, we will begin discussing our Native American brothers and sisters, and how they helped the Pilgrims during their first winter in North America.

The numbers 13 and 14 will be introduced this week.

Mrs. Paula, Mrs. Karen, Miss Ellie and Mrs. Donielle

Craft and Writing: Our papers this week include the counting and printing of numbers 13 and 14. To get in the Thanksgiving mood, we will make corn crafts and paper plate pies.

Language Arts: Many new words will be introduced. Words such as; Pilgrims, Mayflower and Plymouth Rock. Highlighted stories for this week include Thanksgiving by Lizzie Rockwell, Thanksgiving Mice, by Bethany Roberts, and The Ugly Pumpkin, by Dave Horowitz.

Concept: Our estimation skills are becoming increasingly more accurate as we continue into another week of school. The numbers 13 & 14 will be added to our concept jobs. We will compare and contrast the life of the Native Americans to the life of modern day families

Motor: Our ball handling skills will be tested with a game of basketball. Action words Run, Jump and Hop will keep our bodies in shape!
