

Pre K Press

Theme: Native Americans and
The First Thanksgiving

Language Arts: Our classroom discussions will include the first Thanksgiving. We will be singing songs such as Gobble, Gobble and I'm a Nut. The flannel board story Colored Turkey Feathers and It Smells Like Thanksgiving will be enjoyed, along with featured story Thanksgiving At Our House, by P.K. Hallinan.

Concept: A turkey on our shelf will help us enhance our number concept skills. Don't worry, no turkeys were harmed in the making of this activity! Feathers will also be added to our science table.

Craft & Writing: Learning to print our new letters will take place over the next 2 weeks. Our classroom will come alive as we create Thanksgiving decorations for our Thanksgiving celebration such as a pumpkin pie and a cute hedgehog.

Motor: Sign language signs for our new letter will be introduced. A path activity will keep us moving this week. Also, weather permitting, we will go outside, so dress your little turkey warm! Please be sure to label coats and hats.
