Week 17 December 2—6, 2024

Emotions

INTRODUCING:
9 & 10

STAR STUDENT: Aleksander

LANGUAGE AND READING:

We have many new songs to learn and sing about emotions like happy, sad and mad. There are many books to read about emotions as well. We will practice being in a library and read some of these emotion books.

The letters Aa—Jj and their phonetic sounds will be reviewed. We will play new review games and sing the A is for Amos song.

CONCEPT:

We will play memory and the what's missing game, using emotional faces. The numbers 9 & 10 will be introduced and added to the concept shelf jobs. We will also spend some time counting and estimating.

As a group, we will have some fun activities to enjoy.

CRAFT AND WRITING:

Readiness papers for the numbers 9 & 10 will be worked on. The children will count and learn to print these numbers.

There will be some theme related art to be completed. We are going to make emotional little monsters.

Lastly, we will create decorations for the holidays for your home.
