Weeks 24 January 20–24, 2025

Careers

INTRODUCING: pink white

STAR STUDENT: Gracelyn      HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Gracelyn on January 25.

LANGUAGE:

What do you want to be when you grow up? We are going to teach the boys and girls that they can be a doctor, firefighter, baker or whatever else they want to be! We will discuss and role play a variety of different careers. We will learn by looking at pictures, singing songs, and reading books.

We will sing the 'A' is for Amos song daily and play some active review games.

CONCEPT:

During Concept this week the children will get to learn about snow and the season of winter. We will talk about snowflakes, snowmen and even have a pretend snowball fight!

We will add the colors pink and white to the shelf jobs. Each day the children will get to choose a job to work on off the shelf.

We will also play with puzzles.

CRAFT AND WRITING:

We have many coloring papers to work on this week. We will use the colors white and pink on many of our papers.

White and pink play doh will also be enjoyed with cookie cutters.

PARENT NOTES:

On Monday, the children will celebrate Dr. Martin Luther King Day.

We do go outside occasionally in the snow. Please make sure your child has the appropriate outside gear.

Open registration has begun for summer camp and the 2025 school year. Pay fall registration fee by Feb. 15 and receive 1/2 off.
